Use the back of this page or attach a separate letter to answer the following:

What makes this child an "Incredible Kid"?

The more information you give us, the better the committee will know the child.

Has he been a positive influence on those around him?

Has she shown uncommon courage in the face of danger, or in standing up for a worthy cause?

Has he overcome adverse circumstances to contribute to his community?

Has she been involved in mission work or outreach to needy or suffering people, at home or abroad?

Has he spent an extraordinary amount of hours in community service activities, or even developed and lead service projects of his own?

We are looking for kids who have gone above and beyond themselves to make their world a better place.

Our community is blessed with some truly incredible kids. Tell us your story!

The most promising nominations are full of specific examples of how this youth is impacting those around her.
